

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XXI.

STANFORD, KY., TUESDAY, MAY 9, 1893.

NO. 20

LONDON, LAUREL COUNTY.

—A widower living in this city will take unto himself a bride in a very short while.

—Mr. Frank Seent, of Flat Lick, was here to touch the electric button at Mrs. Lucy J. Williams' opening last Saturday.

—Mrs. Daws, Misses Bertie and Carrie McKinney and Mr. W. W. Wells, of Paint Lick, are registered at the Catching House.

—Revs. Kerr, of the Presbyterian church, Elliott of the Christian church and Struve at the Methodist preached here Sunday.

—W. B. Catching, Matt Watkins and S. F. Jackson were in Louisville Wednesday. Col. O. P. Ely, of Flat Lick, was here Saturday.

—The London Cornet Band officiated at the opening at Mrs. Lucy J. Williams' new brick building Saturday. Mrs. Williams is the first to erect a new building on the burnt district.

—Mrs. Rogers, wife of "Uncle Ben" Rogers, died Tuesday, after an illness of several months, at her home in the extreme western part of the county.

—Mr. A. W. Higgins, lately with the Mt. Vernon Signal, has accepted Mr. Martin's position as foreman of the Mountain Echo. Mrs. E. H. Hackney will return next Wednesday from an extended visit to Bryansville, in Garrard county. Mrs. W. B. Catching went to Newcastle Saturday to bring her sister, Mrs. Sallie Sawyer, home with her. Mrs. Sawyer is an invalid.

—W. H. Martin, after a sojourn of 16 years in London, having married here, leaves this week for Bluefield, Va., situated in the county of his birth, where he will make his future home. Mr. Martin has been employed as foreman of the Echo most of the time he has been here, and will have a similar position at his new home. Everybody knows Martin and his numerous friends here will greatly regret his departure.

DANVILLE.

—Granville Cecil, Jr., has been added to the clerical force of the Farmers National.

—Mr. Wm. Warren and family have moved to the property at 4th and Walnut, lately occupied by R. H. Perkins.

—Washington Hume, an old colored man, who for a long time attended to R. G. Evans' trotting horses, dropped dead at his home on Duncan's Hill Thursday night.

—Rev. John B. Deering, of Versailles, preached at the Methodist church Sunday. Rev. W. F. Taylor, the pastor, preached for Mr. Deering's congregation at Versailles.

—Ada Gilder, two years, grand larceny; Bud Mulligan, one year, housebreaking; Eugene Owens, two years, manslaughter, will be taken to Frankfort Tuesday morning by Sheriff Bailey. A strong effort will be made to induce Gov. Brown to pardon Owens, who is too young to go to such a place.

—Frank Bunn was fined $25 in the recorder's court last Saturday for assaulting Harry Barlow; Joe Goings $50 for selling malt liquor; Charles Cowan $10 for pursuing Jenny Malo with unwelcome attentions and for casting a limestone at her. An examining court held by said recorder same day, dismissed Sam Walker, charged with malicious shooting, and as trial court, sent Sam to the work house for 10 days and fined him $25 for carrying concealed weapons. Same recorder as examining court held James Walker on a bond of $50 to answer a charge of stealing a $5 pair of pants from Phil Marks.

ARE YOU GOING?—If so get posted ahead and go the best way. The World's Fair opens May 1, and from the South and Southern Ohio, the route via C. H. & D. offers the most advantages both in comfort and points of interest. The C. H. & D. in connection with the Monon is the only line running Pullman vestibuled trains with dining cars between Cincinnati and Chicago. The unequalled service of this route has earned for it the title of the "World's Fair Route." Purchase tickets via the C. H. & D. For rates, and full information call on or address any C. H. & D. agent or E. O. McCormick, G. P. & T. Agt., "World's Fair Route," 200 W. 4th Street, Cincinnati, O. Send 20 cents in stamps to the latter address and receive a panoramic view, five feet long, of Chicago and the World's Fair, showing relative heights of buildings, &c.

Now Try This.

It will cost you nothing and will surely do you good if you have a cough, cold or any trouble with throat, chest or lungs. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds is guaranteed to give relief or money will be paid back. Sufferers from La Grippe found it just the thing and under its use had a speedy and perfect recovery. Try a sample bottle at our expense and learn for yourself just how good a thing it is. Trial bottles free at A. K. Penny's drug store. Large size 50 cents and $1.

Specimen Cases.

S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wm., was troubled with Rheumatism and Rheumatism; his stomach was disordered, his liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him.

Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Illinois, had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and his seven bones of Buckler's Arnica Salve and his leg is sound and well. John Speaker, Catawba, had five large fever sores on his leg; doctors said he was incurable. One bottle of Electric Bitters and one box Buckler's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold by A. R. Penny, drug-gist.

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

—John Y. Leavell and family, of Lower Garrard, have moved to the Bradley property on Stanford street.

—The members of the band have ordered of J. C. Hemphill, agent for a St. Louis firm, a handsome set of uniforms.

—J. Mort Rothwell has returned from a week's fishing trip to the mountains. Want of space prevents us from giving the number of fish he caught.

—The meetings at the Presbyterian church will continue through this week. Rev. McDonald is an earnest, eloquent speaker and large audiences attend each meeting.

—Paderewski, the long-haired piano pounder, has announced that he will not play at the World's Fair unless he is permitted to use a Steinway and that he will hang on no other instrument. He is sustained in his decision by Theodore Thomas, a musician, who has been flattered until he has become convinced that when he dies music will die. If all the grumblers at Chicago could be corralled and thrown into the lake it would be for the public good.

—Word came from Chicago to the effect that the extortion to which the public will be subjected in visiting the exhibition will be simply appalling. The respect of the boarding house keepers and hotels is frightful. Diminutive rooms with small cots and without meals are from $4 to $5 per day. For a two-minute ride in a chair the charge is 75 cents. President Higginbotham visited a number of the eating saloons in disguise and found that extortion was the order of the day. To the rich this of course amounts to nothing, but it will deter many of moderate means from visiting the fair.

—The "In and About" man of the Courier-Journal referring to the recent tragedy at Danville thinks that "something of this kind must happen occasionally or a wild outbreak of mob violence to express the indignation of the people of this kind of trifling and to bring courts and lawyers to a realization that the forms of law must not be allowed to swallow up the substance of justice." It is both unjust and improper in this case to cast any censure upon either the attorneys or the court. It is the duty of the lawyer to do the best he can for his client consistent with professional propriety, and certainly the court could have no interest in thwarting the ends of justice. Those who have known Judge Santhey and are familiar with his rulings and mode of conducting business since he has been upon the bench can bear ample testimony to the fact that he never allows continuance of a case except for the most potent reasons known to the law. He not only requires the defendant to go to trial, but compels the attorney for the commonwealth to do likewise unless the cause for a continuance is clearly established. No blame whatever can justly attach to the court in the unfortunate affair at Danville.

BARBOURVILLE.

—Col. John Dishman, who has been unable to attend court here at all this term, is now able to walk around a little.

—I wish to add my congratulations to the long list which has been showered on Editor Sam J. Roberts, of the Kentucky Leader, upon his successful rounding up of his fifth year in Kentucky journalism.

—Miss Emley, of Williamsburg, is visiting Miss Nannie Anderson. H. C. Faulkner went to Manchester Sunday to attend county court. C. N. Sampson is in London on business with the First National Bank.

—There are still two more weeks of court here yet. The last and fifth week will be devoted exclusively, I am told, to civil business. The jury in the case of Lloyd Hutton for killing Coon Engle, returned a verdict this morning of confinement in the penitentiary for 11 years, after having been out four days. It is generally thought to be a very light verdict. This makes the 7th person sentenced to the penitentiary this term of court.

To Brace Up

the system after "La Grippe," pneumonia, fevers and other prostrating acute diseases; to build up needed flesh and strength and to restore health and vigor when you feel "run down" and used-up, the best thing in the world is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It promotes all the bodily functions, rouses every organ into healthful action, purifies the blood, repairs and invigorates the entire system. For the most stubborn Scrofulous, Skin or Scalp Diseases, Dyspepsia, Biliousness and kindred ailments, the "Discovery" is the only remedy that is guaranteed. If it doesn't benefit or cure you have your money back.

Can you think of anything more convincing than the promise that is made by the proprietors of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy? It is this: "If we can't cure your catarrh, we'll pay you $500 in cash."

NEWSY NOTES.

—The World's Fair was closed as close as a claim Sunday.

—Versailles will be 100 years old on the 13th and the occasion will be fittingly celebrated.

—An English firm has sent a piece of coal weighing something over 30,000 lbs. to the World's Fair.

—A sea serpent 30 feet long and weighing over 1,000 pounds was killed near Provincetown, Mass.

—An engine dashed into a caboose near Dayton, O., and killed five tramps who were stealing a ride.

—Robert Bonlier, son of Manager Al Bonlier, of the Masonic Temple, Louisville, was killed by an electric car.

—Ex-United States Senator Jas. Willis Patterson, of New Hampshire, dropped dead at a prayer meeting at Hanover, N. H.

—Three inches of rain fell in New York city during a severe storm, in which several vessels at the wharves were sunk.

—At Los Tunas, N. M., Antonio Martinez, Antonio J. Barcas, alias Garcia, and Victoriano Argon, charged with murder, were taken from jail and lynched.

—The Richmond, Va., city council has appropriated $4,000 to defray the expenses incident to the reinterment of the remains of Jefferson Davis May 31.

—Miss Grace Wiscamp, of Winchester, O., left her home and joined a circus. In writing back she said her only reason for leaving was that home was too tame for her.

—Pearl Kenyon, a mulatto girl, was sentenced to three months' imprisonment in the county jail at Chattanooga, Tenn., and fined $20 for marrying a white man.

—V. L. Gossett has been appointed postmaster at Cain's store, J. M. James at Elithu, J. M. Wilson at Faubush and J. H. Crew at Greenwood, all in Putaski county.

—I. C. Weaver, a member of the Helen Lumber Company, at Pleasant View, while measuring logs was instantly killed by logs rolling together and crushing his head.

—Gov. Flower has denied the application for clemency for Carlyle W. Harris, the wife murderer, and he will be electrocuted during the week beginning yesterday at Sing Sing.

—While a number of young people were sitting up with the corpse of Mrs. James Williams, near Ashland, the body raised up, looked around and then laid back on the cooling-board.

—During the year ending April 30, 150 National banks were organized in the United States, with a capital of $14,225,000. Only two of the banks were in Kentucky, and their combined capital amounted to $150,000.

—George Williams, a brakeman on the West Virginia and Pittsburg railroad, wrecked a passenger train near Wheeling to kill his wife, who had left home. Several of the passengers were killed, but Mrs. Williams was only slightly injured.

—"Deacon" White, who only the other day was paid off dollar for dollar with interest the million and a half liabilities attaching to his failure of a year or so ago, has again gone down under the surging waves of the troubled sea of Wall Street.

—Ex-Senator Ingalls was taken for a crazy man at a country school-house near Atchison, Kansas, and the teacher and pupils together deserted the school. A report had been circulated that a crazy man was in the vicinity and the lady teacher mistook the distinguished ex-Senator for him.

—Near Alexander, Tenn., two women named Evans attacked Mrs. Shelton while she was riding alone and dragging her from her buggy, beat her with sticks and slashed her in several places with knives. Mrs. Shelton had been summoned to appear against the Evans women for selling whisky.

—A two-year-old child fell from a passenger train, which was running at the rate of 40 miles per hour, near Delaware, O., and was only slightly bruised. When the train stopped and the passengers went back, she was sitting quietly on the side of the road and very carefully asked where her mother was.

—The jury which sat on the case of lynched Jones Collins, at Sherman, made no effort whatever to ascertain the names of the masked lynchers. A horse thief who would surely have been sent to the penitentiary is jerked into eternity and justice winks at the murderers. Frenzied by the law's delay, infuriated by the sight of his sister's ravisher enjoying freedom, with the prospect of ultimate acquittal, L. D. Woods shot down Barney Higgins, and almost before the report of the avenging shots died away the grand jury returned an indictment for murder. Kentucky justice is an unique article.—Louisville Times.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—Sunday, May 21, will be celebrated as Children's Day by Methodists throughout the country, with appropriate exercises.

—T. M. Hawes, who has frequently appeared here as an elocutionist, was ordained to the Presbyterian ministry in Louisville Sunday.

—Rev. F. E. Cooley, the new rector of the Episcopal church at Danville, will preach at the College Chapel at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

—Rev. J. M. Bruce, of Glasgow, will not accept the call to Mt. Pleasant church. He has been elected president of Liberty College, at Glasgow.—Jesseamine Journal.

—The Kentucky Christian Sunday-school Association will be held at Richmond, June 20-22. It will be conducted by Rev. A. C. Hopkins. Rev. J. Q. Montgomery is down for an address on Home Study of the Scriptures.

—At the meeting of the young men Sunday the following executive committee was appointed: C. E. Tate, W. H. Higgins, M. F. Elkin and C. H. Holmes. The next meeting will be held Sunday afternoon and will be conducted by Mr. C. E. Tate.

—The General Assembly of the Southern Presbyterian church will convene in Ma., Ga., on the 18th. Transylvania Presbytery will be represented by Rev. E. M. Green; alternate Rev. W. A. Slaymaker; James N. Denny, alternate A. C. Sine. The body will be in session about 10 days.

—The sermon of Rev. W. A. Slaymaker at the union service at the Baptist church, Sunday night, is highly praised by the other pastors present, who say it was the best effort he has put forth since he came to Stanford. The next service will be at the Methodist church by Rev. J. H. Julian.

—Rev. W. E. Ellis' sermon Sunday on the failure of most people to bridge their tongues was a terrific arraignment of the profane swearer, the gossip, the slanderer and the egotist, and was peculiarly applicable at present. The discourse abounded in apt quotations and was chock full of good common sense.

—Brigham Young reached the valley of Salt Lake August 24, 1847; four days afterward, with the council, he walked over the land, and, stopping at a point midway between two creeks, struck the ground with his cane, saying, "Here will be the temple of our God." This spot is the centre of the site of the temple just completed.

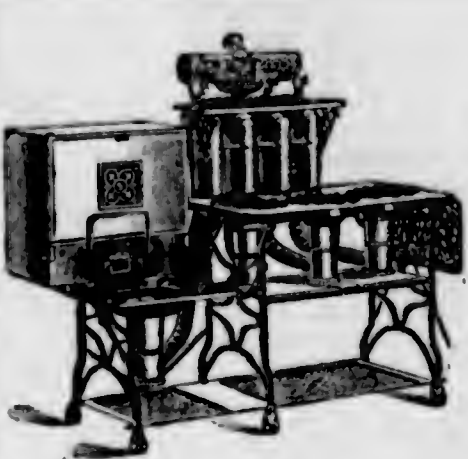

It was at Lincoln, Ill., that a religious revival was in progress and the evangelist, after a powerful sermon on the christian duty of debt paying, called on all the members of the congregation who paid their debts to stand up. The congregation rose almost to a man. After they were seated, the evangelist invited those who did not pay their debts to stand. A solitary, forlorn looking individual arose to his feet and explained that while he found himself in the category very unwillingly he could not help himself, as he was the editor and proprietor of the local paper, and could not pay up, as the congregation owed him their subscriptions. Such a flood of money as poured into that office the next morning had never been known in the history of the paper.

A company has been formed at Madison, Ind., and plans have been submitted for what will be, if completed, the most novel track in the world. The plan is to build a straight mile track, with just as much "dip" as is allowed by the racing associations. A grand stand capable of seating 5,000 people will be erected. This will be modeled after an electrical railway car and will run on three tracks. It will be connected with the starter's stand, so that when he drops the flag he can press a button and the horses and car will begin the race simultaneously. Races will be conducted by night as well as during the day. Stock to the extent of $100,000 has been subscribed, and it is hoped to have the track ready by July.

A young lady of this place recently found a lot of letters written by her father to her mother many years before they were married. The daughter read them to her mother, pretending they were of recent date, and substituted her own name for that of her mother and that of a young man, well known to them both, for her father's. The mother was very much disgusted and has forbidden her daughter to have anything to do with a young man who will write "such nonsense and sickening stuff."—Georgetown, O., News-Democrat.

—Miss Lottie Mortimer announces that she will dance on the roof of the Madison Square Garden, New York, this summer, in a dress that will be decorated with hand-painted butterflies, and that will contain 10 yards more of material than a dancer's dress ever had before.

—There are 750 hotels of greater or less degree in Chicago.

—V. L. Gossett has been appointed postmaster at Cain's store, J. M. James at Elihu, J. M. Wilson at Faubush and J. H. Crew at Greenwood, all in Pulaski county.

—I. C. Weaver, a member of the Helen Lumber Company, at Pleasant View, while measuring logs was instantly killed by logs rolling together and crushing his head.

—Gov. Flower has denied the application for clemency for Carlyle W. Harris, the wife murderer, and he will be electrocuted during the week beginning yesterday, at Sing Sing.

—While a number of young people were sitting up with the corpse of Mrs. James Williams, near Ashland, the body raised up, looked around and then laid back on the cooling-board.

—During the year ending April 30, 150 National banks were organized in the United States, with a capital of $14,325,000. Only two of the banks were in Kentucky, and their combined capital amounted to $150,000.

—George Williams, a brakeman on the West Virginia and Pittsburgh railroad, wrecked a passenger train near Wheeling to kill his wife, who had left home. Several of the passengers were killed, but Mrs. Williams was only slightly injured.

—"Deacon" White, who only the other day was paid off dollar for dollar with interest the million and a half liabilities attaching to his failure of a year or so ago, has again gone down under the surging waves of the troubled sea of Wall street.

—Ex-Senator Ingalls was taken for a crazy man at a country school-house near Atchison, Kansas, and the teacher and pupils together deserted the school. A report had been circulated that a crazy man was in the vicinity and the lady teacher mistook the distinguished ex-Senator for him.

—Near Alexander, Tenn., two women named Evans attacked Mrs. Shelton while she was riding alone and dragging her from her buggy, beat her with sticks and slashed her in several places with knives. Mrs. Shelton had been summoned to appear against the Evans women for selling whiskey.

—A two-year-old child fell from a passenger train, which was running at the rate of 40 miles per hour, near Delaware, O., and was only slightly bruised. When the train stopped and the passengers went back, she was sitting quietly on the side of the road and very carelessly asked where her mother was.

—The jury which sat on the case of lynched Jones Collins, at Sherman, made an effort whatever to ascertain the names of the masked lynchers. A horse thief who would surely have been sent to the penitentiary is jerked into eternity and justice winks at the murderers. Frenzied by the law's delay, infuriated by the sight of his sister's ravisher enjoying freedom, with the prospect of ultimate acquittal, L. D. Woods shot down Barney Higgins, and almost before the report of the avenging shots died away the grand jury returned an indictment for murder. Kentucky justice is an unique article.—Louisville Times.

KILLED.

A Room in the Coffey House the Scene.

A Game of Cards the Cause.

A game of cards, a row, a pistol shot, a soul hurried into eternity unprepared! This tells the tale of the terrible tragedy enacted at the Coffey House last night.

While a game of cards was in progress in one of the back rooms of the Coffey House last night, Mack Ferrell and Jas. Wickersham went in. The latter remarked, so Ferrell's story goes, "I'm in $5." Ferrell said, "I'll go halvers." Sam Engleman, known as "Long Sam," replied that there were no halvers in that game and he and Ferrell passed some short words. John W. Bright, who was present, pulled out a pistol and laying it on the table said, "You can't bulldoze unc. where I am."

Ferrell says that Engleman made a move as if to draw a pistol from his right front breeches pocket and he drew his, snatching the one on the table and firing his own at Engleman, the ball taking effect in the right temple and killing him in a short time. All the party then rushed from the room and Ferrell with a pistol in each hand and one on his person, ran to his brother Tom. It was decided that he surrender to Judge Carson, and he did so, being immediately sent to jail, where our reporter visited him.

There had been no previous difficulty between the men, who had met often in games of chance. Ferrell seems to have lived by gambling, as he had no other visible means of support.

It was hard to get those present to talk but their story is about like Ferrell's. A pistol was found under Engleman's body when help arrived.

The wife of the dead man was sent for and she arrived a little past midnight. Her anguish was pitiful and her screams were heartrending. She was Miss Mary Farris, a sister of Mr. J. R. Farris, formerly of this place, and has one son, Eph, who was present at the time of the shooting.

Mr. George R. Engleman, brother of the deceased, had the remains taken to his late home this morning, from which the interment will take place to-morrow afternoon in the old Engleman burying ground.

As there were numerous witnesses to the killing, Judge Carson decided an inquest unnecessary.

The hour for the examining trial has not been set. We will give a full report of the evidence adduced in our next.

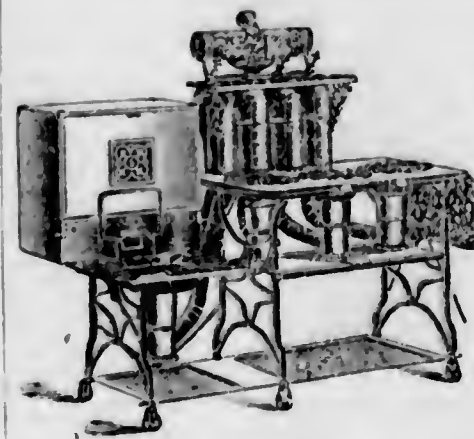

Those who attended the musical recital by a portion of Miss Miss Howard's class last night were furnished a feast of music that was heartily enjoyed. Both teacher and pupils were the recipients of hearty congratulations. A more detailed report will appear in Friday's issue.

—Carlyle Harris, the wife murderer, was electrocuted at Sing Sing yesterday. His last words were, "I am innocent."

—T. M. Hawes, who has frequently appeared here as an elocutionist, was ordained to the Presbyterian ministry in Louisville Sunday.

—Rev. F. E. Cooley, the new rector of the Episcopal church at Danville, will preach at the College Chapel at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

—The General Assembly of the Southern Presbyterian church will convene in Ma., Ga., on the 18th. Transylvania Presbytery will be represented by Rev. E. M. Green; alternate Rev. W. A. Slaymaker; James N. Denny, alternate A. C. Sine. The body will be in session about 10 days.

The programme of the Kentucky Press Association has at last been announced. Mr. A. Y. Ford, one of the executive committee, publishes it in Saturday's Courier-Journal. The editors will meet in Louisville May 29 at 2:30 and whatever of business to be attended to will be done at that and an evening session. The cut and dried literary programme, we are glad to say, will be omitted and after the business meetings, the round of social enjoyment will begin. On the morning of May 30th, the association will leave for Chicago in a train of Pullman Palace cars, furnished free of cost by the Pennsylvania railroad. The return trip will be by the Monon, which will also extend a similar courtesy of cars and transportation, thus enabling the members to see the country by the two routes. Wednesday morning a session of the association will be held in the Kentucky building at the World's Fair, when officers will be elected for the ensuing year, after which a lunch will be spread for the members by the lady managers. The Kentucky State building is to be dedicated the next day, June 1, and in the ceremonies the editors will take part. The programme is splendidly arranged for pleasure and the largest meeting in the history of the association is assured.

SAM JONES referred to the Louisville Times as "that infernal paper published at Louisville." What is brother Logan going to do about it and how are the drummers to get over this withering remark concerning them? "Most of the dirty stories you hear about Sam Jones are circulated from town to town by the dirty, contemptible, mangy, infernal commercial travelers. There are no better men in the world, no purer men and no more honorable men than some drummers, but if there is one of those other hell-hounds here he isn't fit for soap grease in the soap factory of hell." This is beautiful language and yet the daffidown individual who edits the Paducah Standard is moved to say, "We would as soon doubt the sincerity of Jesus Christ himself as to believe that the Rev. Sam Jones is anything less than a grand man, an inspired preacher and a devoted champion of the salvation of human souls." The fool-killer is surely very unimpeachable of his duties, we feel to remark.

You can no more make a silk money purse out of a sow's ear, to use a homely adage, than you can make a gentleman out of a natural born scab. Gov. Penoyer, of Oregon, who insulted President Harrison, further showed his boorishness the other day by answering a dispatch from Secretary Gresham asking him to see that the threatened uprising against the Chinese in that State, was suppressed in the outset: "Tell the president to attend to his own business. I'll attend to mine." On the principle laid down by the poet, that the want of manners is the want of sense, Oregon's executive is one of the most blooming idiots of the day. He is a republican, of course.

Under the new commissioner the scandalous pension list is to be revised, but it will be done so as to work no injustice to any one. It is given out from the office that every man who is entitled to a pension will get one, so far as the bureau is concerned, and no man's pension is going to be disturbed if he deserves it. But one thing is certain, that every possible means will be adopted to discover every case now on the pension roll where the pensioner is not entitled to the amount he is receiving, and these will be dropped. This is exactly right. Coffee-coolers and bounty-jumpers have lived long enough at the expense of the government.

Miss MARY A. A. GAY, whose lover fell in battle, has devoted her life to the preservation of Confederate records and in raising money to perpetuate the memory of our fallen heroes. The monument soon to be erected at Crawfordsville, Ga., to Vice President Alexander H. Stephens was purchased with money principally raised by her, and hundreds of other almost as large undertakings are credited to the woman who gave her lover and then her life to the cause she loved so well.

The Mountain Echo is somewhat disfigured, but still in the ring. Editor A. R. Dyche had the misfortune to break his large press a week or more ago, which necessitated its shipment to Cincinnati for repairs, but he did not sit down and cry. By printing a portion of the ordinary page at a time on a jobber, he has been able to get out the paper on time, though considerably reduced in size. It is hard to keep a working man down.

Another editor gets his reward. The president has appointed Alexander McDonald, editor of the Lynchburg Virginian, to be minister to Persia. Mr. McDonald is also at present a member of the Virginia State Senate.

Justice has been slow in the case of Dr. Hourigan, but it has finally partially come him. Six years ago he killed his brother-in-law, Sam Hays, in Marion county, over a loan of $250. Immediately after the killing he was arrested and lodged in the Lebanon jail, where a mob gathered to lynch him, but his cries aroused the citizens and the men were forced to leave without accomplishing their purpose. When his trial was called he got it put off by a change of venue to Taylor county, where after a continuance or two he was given 99 years in the penitentiary. He was granted a new trial and sent to the Bardstown jail, from which he escaped, but was soon captured in Tennessee and brought back. Then he was admitted to bail and after numerous continuances and two mistrials, he was again brought to the bar at Lebanon last week. The trial occupied several days and resulted Saturday in a verdict of ten years. The jury at first stood 11 for 21 years and one for two, a compromise being finally effected at the number stated. An appeal will of course be taken, but it is hoped the murderer will be forced to undergo the light punishment. The case has already cost the State $50,000, in the effort of Hourigan's attorneys to get the benefit of the law's delay.

MR. CLEVELAND is not making a gratifying record to those who believe in the doctrine that to the victors belong the spoils. A bulletin from the post-office department shows that during the past two months 155 postmasters of the presidential class were appointed and 28 removed, against 264 appointed and 39 removed during the corresponding period of the Harrison administration. This may fill the souls of the civil service reformers with joy, but the boys in the trenches are apt to ask as does the Roanoke, Va., Times, "What does Grover think we gave him that 47,000 majority for? For our health? Not much; we want offices."

The State convention of republican league clubs will convene at Macauley's theatre, to-day and to-morrow and next day they will be re-enforced by the National Leagues. Col. Clarkson says the meetings are to unify the republicans, but we opine that the result will not do credit to the object. That party is so torn in factions that nothing but a long fast from office can heal. With this meeting and the crowds that will gather to see the Kentucky Derby, Louisville will be crowded to its utmost capacity this week.

The poor little actress, Adele de Mar, is entirely too modest and sensitive for this wicked world in general and particularly for the profession she has chosen. She has sued the Pullman Palace Car Co. for $50,000 damages, because the servants of that company compelled her to share the same stateroom with a horrid man. Miss Adele's modesty, however, seems to be more assumed than real, else she would shrink from the publicity that such a suit will give her.

The rapacity of the restaurant robbers at the World's Fair has caused the management to hold a meeting and demand a reduction in their prices. A piece of meat and a cup of coffee calls for $1.25 and a square meal would likely require an expenditure of $5 to $10. The only way you can keep from being robbed is to carry your lunch in your pocket, or fast while you are taking in the show.

ROBERT B. BOWLER, of Cincinnati, gets the place under this administration held by Judge M. J. Durham under the last democratic regime. The president seems to be sticking to his resolve not to appoint the old office holders to their same positions, pretty well. Judge Durham, however, is too well fixed in his Lexington business to be much disappointed by the turn of affairs.

COL. L. E. CASEY, who has conducted for so many years in such a creditable manner the Covington Commonwealth, has sold his remaining interest to Hon. Harvey Myers, H. C. Hallam and O. J. Higgins, and will retire from the business, his friends regret to know. Mr. Myers will be manager and we hope Walter Emerson will continue as editor-in-chief.

R. M. COCHRAN, of Kansas City, sends us the sworn statement of Mrs. Anna Potter, defeated candidate for mayor of Kansas City, Kas., that her entire expenses of the canvass were $79.50 and not $9,000, as published. Even at this rate, her 26 votes cost $1.18 each, a little more than the average Kentucky price.

The days of the millennium are surely drawing near. Senator Blackburn tells Col. Craiblock that he hasn't taken a drink for a long time and that although he has fallen off from 192 to 164 pounds, he never was in better health. Who said the days of miracles were only in the dim and misty past?

PADERKWERK, the long-haired pianist, sailed for Europe Saturday with $180,000 in his inside pocket, made during his second tour of this country. No wonder he smiled, as the dispatches took the trouble to state, when he embarked amid a shower of bouquets thrown by silly female admirers.

The financial troubles of the National Cordage Co. came near precipitating a panic in Wall Street last week, but after sending a few of the weaker operators to the wall, the mists cleared away and confidence was restored.

The stupendousness of the undertaking of the World's Fair can hardly be imagined. It has, according to an exchange, already cost about $20,000,000. For 21 months its creation has employed a whole army of laborers, masons, carpenters, plumbers, blacksmiths, builders, engineers, architects, artists, decorators—enough to build a city and to people it. There are nearly 700 acres in the grounds and there are 400 buildings there, some of them vast palaces, such as no emperor ever dreamed of building, and one which covers more than 30 acres of land. More than 60,000 exhibitors have taken space, and every nation under the sun which has aught of interest in human progress to show is represented there. The citizens and corporation of Chicago have contributed $11,000,000 outright and have lent $5,000,000 more to make the enterprise a success worthy of the greatness and glory of our time and country. It is estimated that the total outlay, including that of the exhibitors, will exceed $100,000,000. The exhibits are yet in an unfinished condition, but even now it is the greatest show ever seen in the Old or New Worlds.

The Richmond people scorned the proposition of the Chicago parties to buy the Jeff Davis house and remove it to Chicago for exhibition. It was bad enough for the Libby prison building to be taken thither, but that belonged to individuals. The Davis house, says the Dispatch, is the property of the city of Richmond and its use is to be given to a patriotic organization of ladies, who will not only preserve it with affectionate care, but will as far as possible restore it to its war-time condition and add to its contents all the books and curios which they can gather relating to the Southern struggle for independence.

As long as Barney Higgins was alive he was able to inspire a certain kind of following, but when the breath left his body there could be found few so poor as to do him honor. His remains were taken to Cincinnati, his former home, and buried there. His sin was great but most fearfully has it been atoned. Let his death be an awful warning to those who would be guilty of crimes toward women.

The Khan of Khelat is a blood thirsty and murderous old scamp. He has killed five of his wives, one of whom he hurried alive, and since the beginning of his reign in 1887 he has caused 3,000 of his subjects to be put to death, in many cases for no cause whatever. The Indian government has decided to depose him and appoint the Khan's son to be nominal ruler so as to conciliate the native chiefs and annex Beluchistan.

The two Memphis editors, Carmack and Collier, who are racing around the country trying to find some place to fight a duel, ought to be caged and stripped to the waist to fight it fist and skull, till one or the other bites the dust. The public is experiencing much weariness of the flesh over their personal criminalities and recriminations that have been dished up in their papers for the last several months.

The lady managers of the World's Fair are having a h. o. t. Mrs. Palmer threatened to resign if the ladies did not quit quarreling and behave with more dignity. Then all hands began to cry and falling on the neck of the handsome speaker, they called her their "poor, dear queen" and other saccharine appellations. Order was finally restored and Mrs. Palmer did not resign.

The Louisville charter doesn't go. The House by a vote of 48 to 44 refused to pass it over the governor's veto. It would have taken 51 votes to have passed it and the Louisville people claim that they had that number promised, but several failed to keep their word. Our representative, Hon. D. B. Edmiston, and Hon. L. Y. Leavell, of Garrard, voted against the governor.

The defeat of the army bill by the German Reichstag by a vote of 210 to 162 is a great blow to the government and the beginning of the death struggle between despotism and popular sovereignty. The emperor is greatly humiliated and the excitement at Berlin is intense.

The treasury vaults of the United States now contain about $175,000,000 of silver, including bars, dollars and subsidiary coin.

Thus far the year's destruction by fire, floods and tornadoes has been appalling. For the month of April the record of floods is far ahead of that of the other devastating elements.

Gen. Kocercans has resigned as register of the treasury, the duties of which office he has been unable to fulfill for several months. He is now in California, with little prospect of recovery.

The Adams Express handled 67,505 pounds of strawberries on the L. & N. Friday. The shipment of berries this season against the same date of last year shows an increase of 278,185 pounds.

Elmer Randall, a farmer living near St. Joe, Mo., wrote a note to his girl asking her to go to church with him. She refused and went with another fellow. He went alone, but during the services he became insanely jealous and blew his brains out.

Mrs. Lillie Bondurant Henry, well known by some of our local readers, has at last been granted a divorce from her husband, who blackened her eyes and otherwise mistreated her. He offers her $11,000 in lieu of alimony, but she is holding out for $15,000.

The woman who took part in a late marriage at Newcastle, England, had a mathematical formula to guide her. At 16 she married a man of 32; at 30 she married again and chose a man of 60. To conclude the series, she now at 42 marries a man of 84. Her first husband was a Quaker, the second a Catholic and the present one a Protestant.

ANOTHER editor gets his reward. The president has appointed Alexander McDonald, editor of the Lynchburg Virginian, to be minister to Persia. Mr. McDonald is also at present a member of the Virginia State Senate.

Justice has been slow in the case of Dr. Hourigan, but it has finally partially come him. Six years ago he killed his brother-in-law, Sam Hays, in Marion county, over a loan of $250. Immediately after the killing he was arrested and lodged in the Lebanon jail, where a mob gathered to lynch him, but his cries aroused the citizens and the men were forced to leave without accomplishing their purpose. When his trial was called he got it put off by a change of venue to Taylor county, where after a continuance or two he was given 99 years in the penitentiary. He was granted a new trial and sent to the Bardstown jail, from which he escaped, but was soon captured in Tennessee and brought back. Then he was admitted to bail and after numerous continuances and two mistrials, he was again brought to the bar at Lebanon last week. The trial occupied several days and resulted Saturday in a verdict of ten years. The jury at first stood 11 for 21 years and one for two, a compromise being finally effected at the number stated. An appeal will of course be taken, but it is hoped the murderer will be forced to undergo the light punishment. The case has already cost the State $50,000, in the effort of Hourigan's attorneys to get the benefit of the law's delay.

MR. CLEVELAND is not making a gratifying record to those who believe in the doctrine that to the victors belong the spoils. A bulletin from the post-office department shows that during the past two months 155 postmasters of the presidential class were appointed and 28 removed, against 261 appointed and 39 removals during the corresponding period of the Harrison administration. This may fill the souls of the civil service reformers with joy, but the boys in the trenches are apt to ask as does the Roanoke, Va., Times, "What does Grover think we gave him that 47,000 majority for? For our health? Not much; we want offices."

THE State convention of republican league clubs will convene at Macauley's theatre, to-day and to-morrow and next day they will be re-enforced by the National Leagues. Col. Clarkson says the meetings are to unify the republicans, but we opine that the result will not do credit to the object. That party is so torn in factions that nothing but a long fast from office can heal. With this meeting and the crowds that will gather to see the Kentucky Derby, Louisville will be crowded to its utmost capacity this week.

THE poor little actress, Adele de Mar, is entirely too modest and sensitive for this wicked world in general and particularly for the profession she has chosen. She has sued the Pullman Palace Car Co. for $50,000 damages, because the servants of that company compelled her to share the same stateroom with a horrid man. Miss Adele's modesty, however, seems to be more assumed than real, else she would shrink from the publicity that such a suit will give her.

THE rapacity of the restaurant robbers at the World's Fair has caused the management to hold a meeting and demand a reduction in their prices. A piece of meat and a cup of coffee calls for $1.25 and a square meal would likely require an expenditure of $5 to $10. The only way you can keep from being robbed is to carry your lunch in your pocket, or fast while you are taking in the show.

ROBERT B. BOWLES, of Cincinnati, gets the place under this administration held by Judge M. J. Durham under the last democratic regime. The president seems to be sticking to his resolve not to appoint the old office holders to their same positions, pretty well. Judge Durham, however, is too well fixed in his Lexington business to be much disappointed by the turn of affairs.

COL. L. E. CASEY, who has conducted for so many years in such a creditable manner the Covington Commonwealth, has sold his remaining interest to Hon. Harvey Myers, H. C. Hallam and O. J. Wiggins, and will retire from the business, his friends regret to know. Mr. Myers will be manager and we hope Walter Emerson will continue as editor-in-chief.

R. M. COCHRAN, of Kansas City, sends us the sworn statement of Mrs. Anna Potter, defeated candidate for mayor of Kansas City, Kas., that her entire expenses of the canvass were $79.50 and not $9,000, as published. Even at this rate, her 26 votes cost $3.18 each, a little more than the average Kentucky price.

THE days of the millennium are surely drawing near. Senator Blackburn tells Col. Craddock that he hasn't taken a drink for a long time and that although he has fallen off from 192 to 164 pounds, he never was in better health. Who said the days of miracles were only in the dim and misty past?

PADREWEKI, the long-haired pianist, sailed for Europe Saturday with $180,000 in his inside pocket, made during his second tour of this country. No wonder he smiled, as the dispatches took the trouble to state, when he embarked amid a shower of bouquets thrown by silly female admirers.

THE financial troubles of the National Cordage Co. came near precipitating a panic in Wall Street last week, but after sending a few of the weaker operators to the wall, the mists cleared away and confidence was restored.

THE stupendousness of the undertaking of the World's Fair can hardly be imagined. It has, according to an exchange, already cost about $20,000,000. For 21 months its creation has employed a whole army of laborers, masons, carpenters, plumbers, blacksmiths, builders, engineers, architects, artists, decorators—enough to build a city and to people it. There are nearly 700 acres in the grounds and there are 400 buildings there, some of them vast palaces, such as no emperor ever dreamed of building, and one which covers more than 30 acres of land. More than 60,000 exhibitors have taken space, and every nation under the sun which has aught of interest in human progress to show is represented there. The citizens and corporation of Chicago have contributed $11,000,000 outright and have lent $5,000,000 more to make the enterprise a success worthy of the greatness and glory of our time and country. It is estimated that the total outlay, including that of the exhibitors, will exceed $100,000,000. The exhibits are yet in an unfinished condition, but even now it is the greatest show ever seen in the Old or New Worlds.

THE Richmond people scorned the proposition of the Chicago parties to buy the Jeff Davis house and remove it to Chicago for exhibition. It was bad enough for the Libby prison building to be taken thither, but that belonged to individuals. The Davis house, says the Dispatch, is the property of the city of Richmond and its use is to be given to a patriotic organization of ladies, who will not only preserve it with affectionate care, but will as far as possible restore it to its war-time condition and add to its contents all the books and curios which they can gather relating to the Southern struggle for independence.

AS long as Barney Higgins was alive he was able to inspire a certain kind of following, but when the breath left his body there could be found few so poor as to do him honor. His remains were taken to Cincinnati, his former home, and buried there. His sin was great but most fearfully has it been atoned. Let his death be an awful warning to those who would be guilty of crimes toward women.

THE Khan of Khelat is a blood thirsty and murderous old scamp. He has killed five of his wives, one of whom he hurried alive, and since the beginning of his reign in 1887 he has caused 3,000 of his subjects to be put to death, in many cases for no cause whatever. The Indian government has decided to depose him and appoint the Khan's son to be nominal ruler so as to conciliate the native chiefs and annex Beluchistan.

THE two Memphis editors, Carmack and Collier, who are racing around the country trying to find some place to fight a duel, ought to be caged and stripped to the waist to fight it first and skull, till one or the other bites the dust. The public is experiencing much weariness of the flesh over their personal criminalities and recriminations that have been dished up in their papers for the last several months.

THE lady managers of the World's Fair are having a h. o. t. Mrs. Palmer threatened to resign if the ladies did not quit quarreling and behave with more dignity. Then all hands began to cry and falling on the neck of the handsome speaker, they called her their "poor, dear queen" and other saccharine appellations. Order was finally restored and Mrs. Palmer did not resign.

THE Louisville charter doesn't go. The House by a vote of 48 to 44 refused to pass it over the governor's veto. It would have taken 51 votes to have passed it and the Louisville people claim that they had that number promised, but several failed to keep their word. Our representative, Hon. D. B. Edmiston, and Hon. L. Y. Leavell, of Garrard, voted against the governor.

THE defeat of the army bill by the German Reichstag by a vote of 210 to 162 is a great blow to the government and the beginning of the death struggle between despotism and popular sovereignty. The emperor is greatly humiliated and the excitement at Berlin is intense.

—The treasury vaults of the United States now contain about $175,000,000 of silver, including bars, dollars and subsidiary coin.

—Thus far the year's destruction by fires, floods and tornadoes has been appalling. For the month of April the record of floods is far ahead of that of the other devastating elements.

—Gen. Rosecrans has resigned as register of the treasury, the duties of which office he has been unable to fulfill for several months. He is now in California, with little prospect of recovery.

BIG BARGAINS AT THE LOUISVILLE - STORE.

Every day a Special Bargain Day. We do not sell our stock of Dry Goods, Clothing, Shoes, Hats, Carpets and Mattings to match our competition prices, but for the next few weeks we are forced to sell every thing found in our store at what it will bring. We expect to make

A CHANGE IN OUR BUSINESS.

And before doing so we must reduce our great stock. Our way to accomplish this is to give our friends and customers the very latest, very prettiest and very cheapest goods ever sold in this part of the country. Remember you can get any thing and every thing you want, any day and every day

Mothers love to bring their Children for Clothing at The Louisville Store for Three Powerful Reasons: First, It has the largest and loveliest stock in town. Second, It has the politest salesman in town. Third, The prices are lower than any other store in town. Here are a few leaders: Children's Suits at 75c, worth $1.50; a much better one at $1, worth double the money Men's suits at $3.50, worth $7. Men's strictly all wool suits at $5 that you can't buy elsewhere for less than $10; men's jeans pants at 75c, worth $1.50; blue cottonade pants for 50c. Shoes will be sold for 50 per cent. less than their value. A special sale of Hats this week. Men's fine fur stiff hats at 75c, worth $1.50 to $2.50. Give us a call and we will guarantee to save you money.

THE LOUISVILLE STORE.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—The conference committee reported against the clause in the husband and wife bill, forbidding the marriage of first cousins and the Senate adopted the report.

—Belva Lockwood is lecturing in West Virginia on the subject, "Is Marriage a failure?" It is just like a woman to talk most of what she knows less about.

—Mr. Thomas Pulliam, aged 20, obtained license yesterday to marry Miss Laura Smith, sweet sixteen, on the 11th. The ceremony will occur at Mr. J. H. Carter's.

—Mr. Arnold Christian Zurbrugg, the clever cheese maker, and Miss Sophie Sumi, both from Switzerland, will be married at the bride's home at Greenheim to-day.

—It is now an offense in Ohio, punishable with $1,000 and imprisonment, for a minister or magistrate to solemnize marriages without a license, or without the publication of the banns.

—The betrothal is officially announced of the Duke of York and Princess May of Teck. She was betrothed to the duke's brother, the Duke of Clarence, at the time of his death in January, 1892.

—Sheriff John I. VanArsdale, of Mercer, is a marrying man from away back. He is yet under 30 and has been married four times, the last victim being Miss Sallie Booth, a beautiful blonde, whom he led to the altar last week.

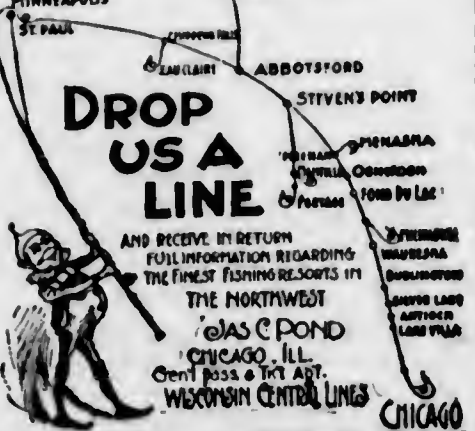

—Elmer Randall, a farmer living near St. Joe, Mo., wrote a note to his girl asking her to go to church with him. She refused and went with another fellow. He went alone, but during the services he became insanely jealous and blew his brains out.

—Mrs. Lillie Bondurant Henry, well known by some of our local readers, has at last been granted a divorce from her husband, who blackened her eyes and otherwise mistreated her. He offers her $11,000 in lieu of alimony, but she is holding out for $15,000.

—The woman who took part in a late marriage at Newcastle, England, had a matrimonial formula to guide her. At 16 she married a man of 32; at 20 she married again and chose a man of 60. To conclude the series, she now at 42 marries a man of 84. Her first husband was a Quaker, the second a Catholic and the present one a Protestant.

—A Michigan lamb recently born has one head, two bodies and 10 legs.

—The International Monetary Conference will not reassemble until sometime in next November.

NEWS comes from Boston that a little girl has come to bless the union of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Paine. Grand-pa Tate bears his new honors with becoming dignity.

THE "kid nine" would have literally worn out the Lancaster boys Friday had not rain prevented a finish of the game. At the third inning the score stood 9 to 3 in favor of our boys.

THE Junction City Times says that Linnetta Park Springs will open on June 10th, under the management of Mr. James D. Shelby. The opening hop will be given on Wednesday night, June 14.

MR. HENRY SINE & MENEFEE have contracted to build a $1,200 cottage for James Milburn on the lot in Hightation, opposite G. B. Cooper's, and a two-story $1,500 house for Harvey Helm on the lot below Miss Lettie Helm's, occupied by Rev. W. E. Ellis.

AT no point where they have played in Kentucky have the New York Stars drawn as much as the guarantee given them. And yet managers are constantly abused for not having something first-class. A minstrel and Uncle Tom's Cabin are the only shows that never fail to draw.

CONSTABLE T. J. BENEDET and Dink Farmer arrested and brought to town Saturday Mose Berry, charged with knocking Jim Farmer down, and Jeff Hale, for shooting at Berry. Hale is also charged with disturbing religious worship. Their trials are set for next Saturday at 10 a. m.

THE Somerset Reporter says bicycle riders are needed in Somerset to induce the authorities to improve the streets. To a man up a tree, bad streets are not more objectionable than bicycle riders, and if Bro. Van Winkle must have them, we wouldn't mind shipping him a few. Understand us, we ain't agin bicycles, though.

MR. M. F. NORTH, formerly of Bell county, but who moved to the Mt. Salem vicinity about four years ago, was here Saturday feeling the pulse of this section in regard to making the race for representative. He says the West End is for him and has many warm friends elsewhere. Mr. North is a good democrat and was once elected to the office of county clerk in his old county.

"DOCK" PADGETT, a worthless citizen of the Kingsville vicinity, has skipped, leaving his wife and children to take care of themselves. Several days ago he and his wife had a few words, when he deliberately struck her over the head with a hoe, inflicting an ugly wound and which came very near breaking her skull. She is in a critical condition at her brother's, "Dug" Jeffries, and if the brutal husband is caught he will be roughly dealt with by her irate relatives and the citizens generally.

A FEW nights ago a youth, who lives not far from the placid waters of Hanging Fork, called on a lady who is at present boarding at the home of a wealthy farmer on Logan's Creek, not far from his mouth. The family room was for a time converted into a parlor and the young couple were enjoying themselves to such an extent that they did not notice the hours fly by. Along about the 11th hour, the farmer, who had been used to retiring when the chickens go to roost, decided that he could stand it no longer and entering the room said, "I'm sorry to disturb you, but I am going to bed," and to prove that he meant business, he began to shed his outer garments. It is needless to add that this gentle hint was sufficient to make the young man bid his fair one adieu.

ON account of sickness in Hon. J. S. Owsley's family he decided that it would not suit him to act as president of the Lincoln County Stock Fair and yesterday afternoon he called a meeting and stated his intention. Regret was expressed at his withdrawal and Mr. E. P. Woods was then placed in nomination and elected to fill the office. It was then decided to change the date to Thursday and Friday, July 27 and 28. A splendid programme was made out and decided upon and the premiums are, like those given last year, very liberal indeed. A purse of $300 is offered for the best saddle stallion and in the roadster rings they are large enough to insure that they will be hotly contested for. Catalogues will be out in a few weeks and those wishing them can be supplied by writing to the secretary. Remember the date, July 27 and 28, and when you can do so speak a good word for the enterprise, which is bound to help promote the horse interests in this section.

LADIES.—As agent for the Lexington Steam Laundry I am prepared to laundry comforts or quilts at 35 cents; curtains, ordinary size, 50 cents; large size 75 cents. Please bring washing in on Mondays. Jesse J. Thompson.

TOMMY BALL disproves the old saying that lightning never strikes twice in the same place. He tells us that an elm tree, 200 yards from his house, which had been struck before, was struck three times during the storm of Friday.

ON account of rain the stockholders of the Knob Lick, McKinney and Turnersville turnpike failed to meet Saturday afternoon and are urgently requested to meet at McCormacks church next Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. J. F. Gover, president.

SOL MARCOSSEN and his concert company agreed to give a performance here Wednesday night, but it was found on investigation that a house that would pay him and leave anything for the Opera House man could not be secured. He will be in Danville to-night.

UNDER the new legislative redistricting bill passed and signed by the governor, a district each is made of Lincoln, Mercer, Garrard, Pulaski, Boyle, Madison and Jessamine. Whitley and Knox are united, as are Rockcastle and Laurel, Casey and Russell, while Clay, Jackson and Owsley form one district.

AN effort is being made by two sets of doctors to have the pension examiners' office moved back to Stanford, where it ought to be. The former board, Drs. Peyton, Bronaugh and Reid, are again applicants, while Drs. Carpenter, Bailey and Brown are also striving to make their calling and selection sure.

IS the county court yesterday John Vincent, qualified as administrator of Thomas Richards. Carpenter and Dalton were granted liquor license and there being a protest against the granting of such license to Mrs. S. Vandurpool, at the Crab Orchard depot, the case was partly heard and continued till Thursday.

WE have four grades of "J. B." and "P. D." corsets. You can get anything you want in these goods. It will also pay you to see our draperies, lace curtains, carpets and especially our new dress goods, and some lines of ladies and gents' shoes and clothing, to be closed out in the next thirty days. Come before styles and sizes are broken. Hughes & Tate

THE weather continues exceedingly unseasonable. Blackberry and dogwood winters tread on each other's heels, so close they follow, and it begins to look like we are to have another year without a summer. There was a slight frost in low places yesterday morning and a drizzling, cold rain during the day made it very unpleasant for those who stood around the streets to make up the crowd of a county court day. The weather man at Washington, disgusted at himself as well as the weather, hasn't sent us a dispatch to the hour that we went to press, so we'll have to take it as it comes.

THE fountain is not shooting the sparkling spray heavenward, that is that any body knows of. After the foolish man who built his house upon the sand, the foundation of the fountain was likewise built and when the rains descended and the floods came and the winds blew, the whole concern went on a bender. It keeled over toward the street and great would have been the fall thereof had not a force been put to work to take it down. The cemented mud was too weak for the 2,500 pounds placed upon it and it acted like quicksand, permitting the concern to sink and forcing the circular walls open. A heavy foundation of stone or concrete should have been built under it and how men with any judgment at all could have been guilty of such an oversight as they were is more than any fellow can find out.

—Wm. Moreland bought of Otis Newland a bunch of 1,200-pound steers at 3½c. He also bought of various parties a lot of cows and calves at $30 to $35.

—WOOL WANTED.—Bring me your wool and get the highest market price. I want it and will buy it if you will give me an opportunity. Wm. Moreland, Stanford, Ky.

—I am still buying wool and hope to see all persons who have it to sell on Monday next. Remember I will pay the highest market price. I. M. Bruce.

—The Phoenix Hotel Stakes at Lexington was won by the colt Clifford. Among the horses finishing unplaced in the race were the Kentucky Derby candidates, Mirage and Linger.

—Wm. Moreland bought of P. Wood Green a bunch of 5 cows and calves for $48; of Hugh Sargent a cow and calf for $35, a lot of 2-year-old steers at 4c and some butcher stuff at 3c.

—A fairly good crowd attended court yesterday, but little or no stock changed hands publicly. Only about 20 head of cattle were on the market and not a hoof was sold under the hammer. Some private sales are reported elsewhere. A few minutes brought $90 to $130 and three pling horses sold at $29, $41 and $60.

—Mrs. Channcey M. Dewey died suddenly at her home in New York Sunday.

—The Minnesota woman lawyer who proposes to practice before the court of which her husband is judge will probably find her services in great demand, unless she differs widely from the average woman.

—The Court of Appeals affirmed the judgment of the lower court in the case of Henry Hall, who murdered his brother near Pikeville, last year, over a game of cards. Hall was sentenced to be hanged June 16 next.

—One of the most horrible wrecks in the history of railroading occurred on the Big Four road at Lafayette, Ind., Sunday morning, as a result of which 10 men are now dead and many more injured. The accident was caused by the failure of the air brakes to work.

—The flue of one of the boilers of the steamer Ohio collapsed on the Mississippi river and 22 men were scalded. Six of them died before reaching the hospital and the doctors say that 10 more can not recover. Cyrus Myers, the second mate, jumped overboard and was drowned.

News comes from Boston that a little girl has come to bless the union of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Paine. Grand-pa Tate bears his new honors with becoming dignity.

THE "kid nine" would have literally worn out the Lancaster boys Friday had not rain prevented a finish of the game. At the third inning the score stood 9 to 3 in favor of our boys.

THE Junction City Times says that Linnetta Park Springs will open on June 10th, under the management of Mr. James D. Shelby. The opening hop will be given on Wednesday night, June 11.

MINK HOUSES.—Sine & Menefee have contracted to build a $1,200 cottage for James Milburn on the lot in Highation, opposite G. B. Cooper's, and a two-story $1,500 house for Harvey Helm on the lot below Miss Lettie Helm's, occupied by Rev. W. E. Ellis.

At no point where they have played in Kentucky have the New York Stars drawn as much as the guarantee given them. And yet managers are constantly abused for not having something first-class. A minstrel and Uncle Tom's Cabin are the only shows that never fail to draw.

CONSTABLE T. J. BENEDET and Dink Farmer arrested and brought to town Saturday Mose Berry, charged with knocking Jim Farmer down, and Jeff Hale, for shooting at Berry. Hale is also charged with disturbing religious worship. Their trials are set for next Saturday at 10 A. M.

THE Somerset Reporter says bicycle riders are needed in Somerset to induce the authorities to improve the streets. To a man up a tree, bad streets are not more objectionable than bicycle riders, and if Bro. Van Winkle must have them we wouldn't mind shipping him a few. Understand us, we ain't agin bicycles, though.

Mr. M. F. NORTH, formerly of Bell county, but who moved to the Mt. Salem vicinity about four years ago, was here Saturday feeling the pulse of this section in regard to making the race for representative. He says the West End is for him and has many warm friends elsewhere. Mr. North is a good democrat and was once elected to the office of county clerk in his old county.

"DOCK" PADGETT, a worthless citizen of the Kingsville vicinity, has skipped, leaving his wife and children to take care of themselves. Several days ago he and his wife had a few words, when he deliberately struck her over the head with a hoe, inflicting an ugly wound and which came very near breaking her skull. She is in a critical condition at her brother's, "Dug" Jeffries, and if the brutal husband is caught he will be roughly dealt with by her irate relatives and the citizens generally.

A few nights ago a youth, who lives not far from the placid waters of Hanging Fork, called on a lady who is at present boarding at the home of a wealthy farmer on Logan's Creek, not far from its mouth. The family room was for a time converted into a parlor and the young couple were enjoying themselves to such an extent that they did not notice the hours slip by. Along about the 11th hour, the farmer, who had been used to retiring when the chickens go to roost, decided that he could stand it no longer and entering the room said, "I'm sorry to disturb you, but I am going to bed," and to prove that he meant business, he began to shed his outer garments. It is needless to add that this gentle hint was sufficient to make the young man bid his fair one adieu.

ON account of sickness in Hon. J. S. Owsley's family he decided that it would not suit him to act as president of the Lincoln County Stock Fair and yesterday afternoon he called a meeting and expressed his intention. Regret was stated at his withdrawal and Mr. E. P. Woods was then placed in nomination and elected to fill the office. It was then decided to change the date to Thursday and Friday, July 27 and 28. A splendid programme was made out and decided upon and the premiums are, like those given last year, very liberal indeed. A purse of $300 is offered for the best saddle stallion and in the roadster rings they are large enough to insure that they will be hotly contested for. Catalogues will be out in a few weeks and those wishing them can be supplied by writing to the secretary. Remember the date, July 27 and 28, and when you can do so speak a good word for the enterprise, which is bound to help promote the horse interests in this section.

LADIES.—As agent for the Lexington Steam Laundry I am prepared to laundry comforts or quilts at 35 cents; curtains, ordinary size, 50 cents; large size 75 cents. Please bring washing in on Mondays. Jesse J. Thompson.

TOMMY BALL, disprives the old saying that lightning never strikes twice in the same place. He tells us that an elm tree, 200 yards from his house, which had been struck before, was struck three times during the storm of Friday.

ON account of rain the stockholders of the Knob Lick, McKinney and Turnersville turnpike failed to meet Saturday afternoon and are urgently requested to meet at McCormacks church next Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. J. F. Gover, president.

SOI, MARCOSSES and his concert company agreed to give a performance here Wednesday night, but it was found on investigation that a house that would pay him and leave anything for the Opera House man could not be secured. He will be in Danville to-night.

UNLESS the new legislative redistricting bill passed and signed by the governor, a district each is made of Lincoln, Mercer, Garrard, Palaski, Boyle, Madison and Jessamine. Whitley and Knox are united, so are Rockcastle and Laurel, Casey and Russell, while Clay, Jackson and Owsley form one district.

AN effort is being made by two sets of doctors to have the pension examiners' office moved back to Stanford, where it ought to be. The former board, Drs. Peyton, Bronaugh and Reid, are again applicants, while Drs. Carpenter, Bailey and Brown are also striving to make their calling and selection sure.

IS the county court yesterday John Vincent, qualified as administrator of Thomas Richards. Carpenter & Dalton were granted liquor license and there being a protest against the granting of such license to Mrs. S. Vanderpool, at the Crab Orchard depot, the case was partly heard and continued till Thursday.

WE have four grades of "J. B." and "P. D." corsets. You can get anything you want in these goods. It will also pay you to see our draperies, lace curtains, carpets and especially our new dress goods, and some lines of ladies and gents' shoes and clothing, to be closed out in the next thirty days. Come before styles and sizes are broken. Hughes & Tate

THE weather continues exceedingly unseasonable. Blackberry and dogwood winters tread on each other's heels, so close they follow, and it begins to look like we are to have another year without a summer. There was a slight frost in low places yesterday morning and a drizzling, cold rain during the day made it very unpleasant for those who stood around the streets to make up the crowd of a county court day. The weather man at Washington, disgusted at himself as well as the weather, hadn't sent us a dispatch to the hour that we went to press, so we'll have to take it as it comes.

THE fountain is not shooting the sparkling spray heavenward, that is that any body knows of. After the foolish man who built his house upon the sand, the foundation of the fountain was likewise built and when the rains descended and the floods came and the winds blew, the whole concern went on a bender. It keeled over toward the street and great would have been the fall thereof had not a force been put to work to take it down. The cemented mud was too weak for the 2,500 pounds placed upon it and it acted like quicksand, permitting the concern to sink and forcing the circular walls open. A heavy foundation of stone or concrete should have been built under it and how men with any judgment at all could have been guilty of such an oversight as they were is more than any fellow can find out.

—WOOL WANTED.—Bring me your wool and get the highest market price. I want it and will buy it if you will give me an opportunity. Wm. Moreland, Stanford, Ky.

—I am still buying wool and hope to see all persons who have it to sell on Monday next. Remember I will pay the highest market price. I. M. Bruce.

—The Phoenix Hotel Stakes at Lexington was won by the colt Clifford. Among the horses finishing in place in the race were the Kentucky Derby candidates, Mirage and Linger.

—Wm. Moreland bought of P. Wood Green a bunch of 5 cows and calves for $48; of Hugh Seargent a cow and calf for $35, a lot of 2-year old steers at 4c and some butcher stuff at 3c.

—A fairly good crowd attended court yesterday; but little or no stock changed hands publicly. Only about 20 head of cattle were on the market and not a hoof was sold under the hammer. Some private sales are reported elsewhere. A few mules brought $90 to $130 and three plug horses sold at $29, $41 and $50.

—Mrs. Chauncey M. Depew died suddenly at her home in New York Sunday.

Hopeless.
Pastor—Pardon me, brother, but are you prepared for the great change that must come to us all? That is certainly a consumptive cough of yours.
Cadaverous Parishioner—I don't believe it, Mr. Goodham. I've been coughing this way for 46 years.
Pastor—How old are you, may I ask?
Cadaverous Parishioner—I'm a little over 50.
Pastor—And been coughing—
Cadaverous Parishioner—Forty-six years.
Pastor—The same way you do now?
Cadaverous Parishioner—Just exactly.
Pastor (regarding him sorrowfully)—It's a great pity, Brother Shunk, it didn't carry you off 46 years ago.—Chicago Tribune.

Fair Warning.
He—I see you looking at the clock. I hope it isn't for me.
She—Oh, no. I was thinking of father. He said he would be home an hour earlier than usual tonight.—Detroit Free Press.

A Mistake.
The tramp had a look of determination on his dirty face as he knocked at the kitchen door of a comfortable house on Foundry street.
"Well, what do you want?" queried the cook snappishly, for she had been bothered much. "Something to eat, I suppose?"
"No, ma'am," replied the tramp as honestly as he knew how.
"Oh, you don't," she sneered. "Then you want something to drink. Tramps are always ready to drink."
"No, ma'am, I don't want anything to drink."
"Maybe you want an old pair of pants, or a coat, or a pair of shoes, or a hat?" she suggested sarcastically.
"No, ma'am, none of those."
"Well, what in the name of goodness do you want?" she asked.
"I want work," he said simply.
"What?" she gasped and fell into his arms in a faint.
"Dang it," he exclaimed, dropping her and starting for the gate, "I might as well know better than to spring that on her."—Detroit Tribune.

The Distinguishing Mark.
"I see they are having quite a discussion in New York as to whether the foreign musicians coming to the World's fair are artists or laborers."
"Why, it's no trouble to decide that."
"How are you going to determine?"
"By the length of their hair, of course."
—Detroit Tribune.

A Night.
Little Miss de Fashion—I am going to send these shoes right back. They are a miserable night.
Father—How?
Little Miss de Fashion—They're a mile too big. They don't pinch a bit.—Good News.

Financially Interested.
"I understand Jigson holds quite a responsible position, and that he is financially interested in the concern he is with."
"Yes. They owe him six months' salary."—Westfield (N. J.) Standard.

Experienced.
Clothes—I can give you a position in the children's clothing department, but you'll find it very aggravating.
Applicant—Not to me, sir; I worked three years in a woman's shoe department.—Haberdschens' Weekly.

A Long Ending.
Little Dick—Who's in the parlor?
Little Dot—Mrs. Blank. She won't get through her call for an hour yet.
"How do you know?"
"I just heard her say, 'Well, I must be going.'—Good News.

The promptness and certainty of its cures have made Chamberlain's Cough Remedy famous. It is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup and whooping coughs, and is the most effective remedy known for these diseases. Mr. C. B. Main, of Union City, Pa., says: "I have a great deal of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I warrant every bottle and have never heard of one failing to give entire satisfaction." 50 cent bottles for sale by W. B. McRoberts, Druggist, Stanford.

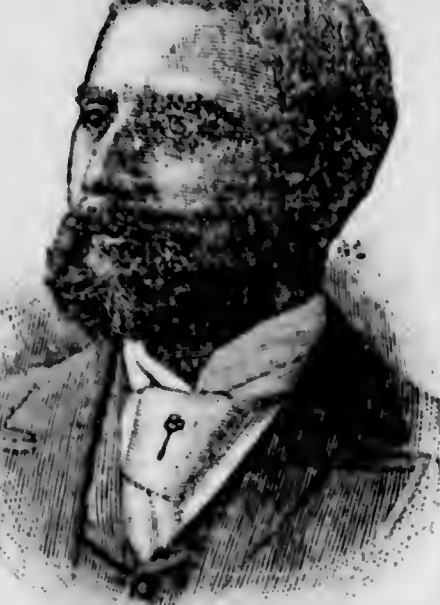

There is nothing I have ever used for muscular rheumatism that gives me as much relief as Chamberlain's Pain Balm does. I have been using it for about two years, four bottles in all, on occasion required, and always keep a bottle of it in my home. I believe I know a good thing when I get hold of it, and Pain Balm is the best liniment I have ever met with. W. B. Denny, dairyman, New Lexington, O. 50 cent bottles for sale by W. B. McRoberts, Druggist, Stanford.

While Mr. T. J. Richey, of Altoona, Mo., was traveling in Kansas he was taken violently ill with cholera morbus. He called at a drug store to get some medicine and the druggist recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy so highly he concluded to try it. The result was immediate relief, and a few doses cured him completely. It is made for bowel complaint and nothing else. It never fails. For sale by W. B. McRoberts, Druggist, Stanford.

Bucklin's Arnica Salve.
The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or the pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 50 cents per box. For sale by A. K. Penny, Stanford, Ky.

RETURN VISIT.

Dr. Goldstein, the Optic Specialist, After a Long Absence.

Dr. Goldstein will be in Stanford Monday to remain a few days only. Eye sight is precious and the popular opinion that the use of glasses should be postponed as long as possible is erroneous. As soon as unpleasant feelings denote approach of failing sight, glasses should be resorted to at once, as the longer the eyes are deprived of the aid of that which they need, and consequently subjected to strain, the more rapid will be the changes as the eye becomes developed. The market is flooded with low priced spectacles, which have imperfect lenses, and are therefore a great injury to the eye. The important part of a pair of spectacles is the part comprising the frames, and naturally of more importance are the lenses they contain. His glasses are fitted with the finest spheroidal convex and concave lenses, accurately measured and properly adjusted to the frame, preventing irritation and strain of the eye. There is a great public need for information regarding the proper selection of spectacles and care of the eyes. A large proportion of habitual weak eye sight may be entirely remedied by the use of a carefully adjusted glass to assist the sight and thereby remove the undue strain to which the eye under certain conditions is subjected. Those whose eyes are in a condition of perfect health will fail to understand adequately the stress laid upon apparently trivial matters in the preceding remarks; but those who have suffered from any defect or weakness of the eyes will comprehend at once the great importance of the seemingly most insignificant point mentioned. The former class of individuals, however, should have quite as much interest in the matter as the latter, for the old proverb that "an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure," can find no more fit application than in the care of the eyes. Dr. Goldstein has been here before and fitted many of our best people with glasses and refers with pride to them. His office will be at the Myers House. Office hours from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m.

TO The People of Stanford AND LINCOLN COUNTY.
Thanking you for your liberal patronage for ice last season, I respectfully request its continuance during the coming season. Indeed I expect all to use the
MANUFACTURED ICE,
For these reasons: First, it is made by a home institution. Second, the ice is absolutely and chemically pure, being made from spring water, which is first distilled and then carefully filtered before being frozen. Third, Artificial Ice will last much longer than pond ice. Fourth, an epidemic of cholera is looked for during the year and nothing is so apt to produce or spread this disease as impure water or ice. Fifth, it will be
